

Cable television companies are required to not have "leakage" above a certain level from their systems. Yet the BPL/PLC proposal will allow RF radiations from unbalanced, unshielded power lines that will interfere with existing services. Whats wrong with this picture?

George Worthington
N7BUI